

Study International Criminal Law in Europe

Nuremberg to The Hague Program

July 4–30, 2021 | Open to Creighton and non-Creighton students

Spend your summer in Germany, Poland and the Netherlands, studying international law and how traumatic societal events like the Holocaust impact history and the law.

By combining classroom instruction with trips to actual crime scenes, places of conspiracy and current trials, N2H will expose you to unrivaled historical and legal experiences.

10 Best Reasons to Study Abroad
This Summer —The National Jurist

The Holocaust education component of N2H is funded by the Staenberg Family Foundation and co-sponsored by the Institute for Holocaust Education.

Learn More and Apply:
nuremberg@creighton.edu | 402.280.1204
law.creighton.edu/N2H

